How to get around in Qatar?

In Qatar you can travel by taxi, bus, metro, rental car or even a limousine. For those who want to travel by metro we have gathered some useful information. The metro system consists of 3 lines; the red, green and gold line. The 40 km red line connects Hamad International Airport to downtown Doha in under 20 minutes and up North to the University. The green line goes from Mall of Qatar in West to downtown Doha. And the gold line is the one you want to catch when you're visiting the Souq Waqif which is one of the 11 stations along the line.

F1 tickets on sale from May 15th

The Formula 1 in Qatar is just around the corner. If you want to secure your ticket, sales start on 15 May. Enjoy the race and visit all the must-sees in Qatar while you're away whether you want to shop at the Mall of Qatar, go on a jeep safari or visit the Pearl.

Qatar has established itself as a prominent host of world championships in various sports such as football, equestrian and golf. The latest edition of Qatar Calendar showcases these events and a diverse range of family-friendly outdoor activities.

About Visit Qatar

Visit Qatar's mission is to firmly establish Qatar as a place where cultural authenticity meets modernity, and where people of the world come together to experience unique offerings in culture, sports, business and family entertainment. QT's work is guided by the Qatar National Tourism Sector Strategy (QNTSS), which seeks to diversify the country's tourism offering and increase visitor spending. Since launching QNTSS, Qatar has welcomed over 14 million visitors. The economic impact of the tourism sector in Qatar is becoming increasingly visible with the government designating tourism in 2017 a priority sector in pursuit of a more diverse economy and more active private sector.
